

Minister for Foreign Affairs

Carl Bildt

Ministry for Foreign Affairs

Biography

Born on 15 July, 1949 in Halmstad. Married, three children.

Education/Degree

Higher education, Stockholm University
Upper secondary school, Östra Real, Stockholm

Political appointments

- 2006- Minister for Foreign Affairs
- 1991-1994 Prime Minister
- 1992-1999 Chair of the International Democrat Union (IDU)
- 1986-1999 Party leader of the Moderate Party
- 1979-2001 Member of the Riksdag
- 1979-1981 State Secretary in the Cabinet Office Coordination Secretariat
- 1976-1978 Special Adviser for coordination functions in the Government
- 1973-1974 Chair of the Free Moderate Student League

Previous assignments

- 1999-2001 UN Secretary-General Section 1s Special Envoy for the Balkans
- 1996-1997 The High Representative of the International Community in Bosnia and Herzegovina for reconstruction and the peace implementation process
- 1995-1997 The European Union Section 1s Special Representative for Former Yugoslavia 1995, Co-Chair of the Dayton Peace Talks on Former Yugoslavia
- Adviser to the European Space Agency (ESA)
- Adviser to the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN)
- Member of the International Balkan Commission

Other

- Former Member of the Board of the International Institute for Strategic Studies, London
- Former Member of the Board of the European Policy Centre, Brussels
- Former Member of the Board of the Centre for European Reform, London

How to contact the Ministry for Foreign Affairs

Website: www.sweden.gov.se
Visitors' address: Gustav Adolfs torg 1
Postal address: SE-103 39 Stockholm
Phone: +46 8 405 10 00
Fax: +46 8 723 11 76
E-mail: information-ud@foreign.ministry.se

REGERINGSKANSLIET

Ministry for Foreign Affairs
Sweden

Former Member of the Board of the RAND Corporation, Washington and Santa Monica

Former Member of the Board of the Aspen Institute, Rome

Honorary degree from the University of St Andrews, Scotland

Fellow at the Centre for the Study of Terrorism and Political Violence (CSTPV), University of St Andrews, Scotland