

Minister for Enterprise and Energy and Deputy Prime Minister

Maud Olofsson

Ministry of Enterprise, Energy and Communications

Areas of responsibility

- Business development
- Primary industries
- Competition
- Needs-driven research
- State ownership policy
- Regional development
- Tourism
- Mining and minerals policy
- Energy policy

Biography

Born in 1955. Married, three children.

Appointments

2006–	Minister for Enterprise and Energy and Deputy Prime Minister
2002–	Member of the Parliament
2001–	Party leader of the Centre Party
2000–	Member of the Centre Party executive committee
1997–2001	Managing Director for the Rural Economy and Agricultural Societies (Hushållningssällskapet) in the Västerbotten region
1995–1997	EU coordinator at the County Administrative Board in the Västerbotten region
1995	EU investigator for the northern 5b-region
1994	Coordinator for rural issues at the County Administrative Board in the Västerbotten region
1992–1994	Special Adviser to Minister Börje Hörnlund at the Department of Labour
1989–1991	Project manager "Women of Robertsfors towards the year 2000"

Commissions of trust

2000	First vice-chairman of the Centre Party
1998–	Substitute member of the structural fond delegation in Northern Sweden
1998–2000	Member of the Swedish Business Development Agency (Nutek) equality delegation
1998–2000	Second vice-chairman of the Centre Party
1997–2000	Member of the board of Föreningsparbanken (a savings-bank) in Umeå
1996–	Member of the Centre Party board
1982–1991	Substitute member of the social committee in the Västerbotten county council

"Sweden is to be one of the best countries in the world in which to start and run a business. It must be more profitable and less complicated to be an entrepreneur."

How to contact the Ministry of Enterprise, Energy and Communications

Webbsite: www.sweden.gov.se

Visitors' address: Jakobsgatan 26

Postal address: SE-103 33 Stockholm

Phone (switchboard): +46 8 405 10 00

Fax: +46 8 411 36 16

E-mail: registrator@enterprise.ministry.se

REGERINGSKANSLIET

Ministry of Enterprise,
Energy and Communications
Sweden